

Year one – Plants.

Subject Specific Vocabulary
calendula (marigold)	A type of garden plant with yellow flowers.
nasturtium	A type of garden plant with yellow or orange flowers.
rose	A type of garden plant with many different coloured flowers.
lavender	A type of garden plant with pink or purple flowers with a strong scent.
pansy	A type of garden plant with many different coloured flowers.
season	The 4 parts of the year.
summer	The hottest season, it comes after spring and before autumn.
autumn	The season between summer and winter when the temperature slowly decreases .
winter	The coldest season, it comes after autumn and before spring.
spring	The season between winter and summer when the temperature slowly increases .
garden plant	A plant grown in a garden by people.

Sticky knowledge
	Nasturtium calendula (marigold), rose, lavender and pansy are types of garden plants.
	To know that summer days are the longest.
	To know that summer is usually the warmest season.
	To know the summer months are June, July and August.
	Evergreen trees have leaves throughout the year so are always green. For example: yew, pine and holly.
	Deciduous trees are trees that shed their leaves once a year, usually during the season of Autumn. For example: sycamore, oak and beech.

Aspirational Scientist:

Hazma Yassin

Hazma is a wildlife presenter and camera man. He has featured on many wildlife programmes including Countryfile, Animal Park and the Cbeebies programme ‘Let’s go for a walk’.

Working Scientifically

