

Subject Specific Vocabulary

Safe	Staying out of danger.
Love	A strong feeling of affection.
Care	To think that something is important so you look after it.
Rules	Guidelines for how you should behave.
restrictions	Something that limits someone's actions or movements.
Emergency	A serious, unexpected and often dangerous situation that needs immediate action.
Risk	The chance of something bad happening.
Trustworthy	You're a person who can be trusted.
Special	Better or more important than anything else.
Different	Not the same.
Communities	Groups of people who share something in common.
Groups	Set of people or things who are considered as one.
Belonging	When we feel loved or accepted for who we are.
Unique	One of a kind.

Sticky knowledge

The safeguarding team is Mrs Ingle, Mrs Carlin, Miss Dickson, Mrs Bentley, Mrs Barnes and Mrs Moody.

There are people that love and care for me.

Rules are important because they keep is safe in different environments and situations.

Unique means that we are one of a kind and that is what makes us special.