

Subject Specific Vocabulary
careers	A job undertaken for a long period of a person's life and with opportunities to progress.
money	This is usually coins or banknotes to represent worth.
spending	The action or practice of spending money to buy things.
saving	The money someone has saved, especially through a bank.
unique	Being the only one of its kind; unlike anything else.
marriage	The legal union of 2 people.
civil partnership	A legal union, like marriage. It was created for people of the same gender to create a union.
union	Action of joining together.
forced marriage	When someone is forced to marry someone else. This is illegal.
illegal	To be against the law.
boundaries	The limits and rules we set for ourselves and others.
gender identity	A way to describe how someone senses their gender.
setbacks	When things seem to go backwards or don't meet our goals.

	Sticky knowledge
	There is a wide range of careers available in the future and some people have many careers in their life.
	There are different ways to look after money. Some people save and some people spend.
	A marriage is when 2 people are joined together under the eyes of the law. Some people choose to do this through a civil partnership, which was created for 2 people of the same gender.
	Forced marriage is illegal.
	Lots of people have different personal boundaries and things they do and do not like from others. We respect these boundaries.
	The internet and social media can have positive benefits for people. It can also have negatives and dangers.
	Sometimes we have setbacks. We can manage these by focusing on what we have achieved and setting new goals and targets.
	Some people identify as a different gender to which they are born with.